A LITTLE FISTICUFF. Begun upon Principle between a Postmaste and an Interior Department Agent, but Winds Up with a Cowardly Fear of their Masters at Washington.

Special to the New York World. BALTIMORE, October 15 .- The sensation of E. B. Tyler, city, upon the ricr department, and directly employed in the pension bureau. The affair has resulted so far in the arrest of General Tyler and his sub sequent release by the police authorities, a hough the end is not yet. Statements vary according to the source from which they are obtained, but the following is reli-General Tyler is through the mailing department found M'Calmont writing at a table. The postmaster ordered M'Calmont out of the ofin at the invitation of a gentleman; he was ice. M'Calmont replied that he had come gentleman. Whereupon Tyler seized M'Cal-mont, striking him with his fist, and afterward throwing him against the boxes. The postmaster passed down the lobby through a large crowd that gathered, followed by M'Calaway. A policeman followed the nostmaster and finally caught up with him, and arrested him. Both officials were then much fright-ened, the postmaster because his confirmation has not been made by the senate, and injure him at the department. A $20,000,000 Suit. CHICAGO, October 18 .- For the past tw ays an important case has been on trial in he United States district court here, before ludge Drummond, involving, it is said, some wenty millions of dollars. It is titled: "The United States revsus the Beef Slough log-driving, transportation, booming and manu-facturing company; the Mississippi logging company, and the Chippewa river improve-ment company." A bill was filed at Madison, last June, to enjoin the defendants from floating logs down the Chippewa river, over which the Federal government claims jurisdiction. A demurrer Judge Drummond, who to-day decided that the navigation of the Chippewa river was free under the enabling act of mitting Wisconsin as a State; that the Mississippi and its tributaries were forever free, public, navigable highways, free from tax whether the companies above named may dam the river, construct boats, etc., to the injury of navigation, the decision is reserved. TELEGRAPH BREVITIES.
